Yummy!

AGGIE ICE CREAM

750 North 1200 East, (435) 797-2109
aggieicecream.usu.edu

20+ flavors of premium ice cream. We fight over which is best: Aggie Blue Mint (with chocolate cookies and white chocolate chunks) or Aggie Bull Tracks (chocolate ice cream with caramel swirls and peanut butter cups).

ANGIE'S RESTAURANT

690 North Main, (435) 752-9252
angiesrest.com

Try the scone (it's not what you think) with honey butter and you definitely have to clean the sink. Translation: eat their ginormous banana split served in a metal sink and score a bumper sticker if you do.

THE BEEHIVE GRILL

255 South Main, (435) 753-2600
thebeehivegrill.com

Rootbeer brewed on site. Twelve flavors of house-made gelato. Also, can you say turtle cake? Oh my.

THE BLUEBIRD

19 North Main, (435) 752-3155
thebluebirdrestaurant.com

Longest running restaurant in the state. We swear by their homemade soup and rolls, and the minced ham sandwich with secret recipe mustard has been on the menu since day one.

CAFÉ SABOR

600 West Center, (435) 752-8088
cafesabor.com

Fresh Mexican food in a cool old train station. Pollo Durango is their top seller and we love anything with sweet pork too.

CRUMB BROTHERS ARTISAN BREAD

291 South 300 West, (435) 753-0875
crumbbrothers.com

Housemade organic breads and pastries. It's the best European bakery this side of the Continent.

ELEMENTS

35 East 640 South, (435) 750-5171
theelementsrestaurant.com

Chicken marsala and kamikaze salmon are definite highlights, and you'll be tempted to lick the plate no matter what dessert you order. Seasonal patio dining available.

FIREHOUSE PIZZA

880 South Main, (435) 787-4222
firehousepizzeria.com

Try on their 36-inch Monster Pizza for size. It's the same as five large pizzas and if that's not enough, add their cheesy focaccia bread and a FH'zzookie for dessert.

HERM'S INN

1435 East Canyon Rd., (435) 792-4321
hermsinn.com

Open for breakfast and lunch. It's about the cinnamon swirl pancake.

JACK'S WOOD-FIRED OVEN

256 North Main, (435) 754-7523
jackswoodfiredoven.com

Step outside your comfort zone and order the Pig and the Peach or the Chuckwagon pizza baked in their open wood-fired oven.

JUNIPER TAKE-OUT

35 East 400 North, (435) 752-3100
junipertakeout.com

It might sound weird, but you should honestly try the turkey steak. Sprinkle it with DeVerle's seasoning salt, which is found on each table. Wait! Then there's the fried chicken and their rolls are heavenly too.

KABUKI JAPANESE STEAKHOUSE

461 North Main, (435) 535-3119
kabukiutah.com

Take a seat at one of the grills and let the show begin. Their sushi is also a hit.

LE NONNE RISTORANTE

129 North 100 East, (435) 752-9577
lenonne.com

Genuine Italian fine dining made by a genuine Italian chef and served up inside a historic home with a lovely patio. You'll love whatever you order.

LOGAN'S HEROES

101 South Main, (435) 755-0110
logansheroes.net

Super fresh sandwiches. Try the original Logan's Hero with all the toppings.

MORTY'S CAFÉ

780 East 700 North, (435) 535-3276
mortyscafe.com

You haven't had a burger until you've tasted Morty's. Enough said.

OLD GRIST MILL

78 East 400 North, also 981 South Main
(435) 753-6463; (435) 755-0262
oldgristmillbreadcompany.com

Best picnic idea ever. Sandwich on homemade bread, chips, a drink and a cookie in a brown paper bag to go. FYI, Wednesday is cowpie cookie day and their sugar cookies are amazing.

TANDOORI OVEN

720 East 1000 North, (435) 750-6836
tandooriovenlogan.com

Delicious Indian food in an old gas station. Dine in or take it out. It's always busy and after you eat, you'll understand why.

BIRDWATCHING

More than 300 species of birds make Cache Valley home. Our unique geography means you can see shorebirds and mountain species all within a 20-minute drive. We're nestled between the Brigham City and Bear Lake Bird Refuges. In spring and summer, Cutler Marsh offers viewing in classic wetland habitat. White pelicans, great blue herons, common egrets, western grebes, plus a variety of ducks, geese and shorebirds may be seen from the road. Rent a canoe or kayak for a close-up experience. In early fall, visit the north end of the Wellsville Mountains to watch the annual raptor migration. Pick up or download brochure at explorelogan.com

BOATING/WATER SPORTS

Cache Valley is the gateway to beautiful Bear Lake, a water sports summer paradise. The 41-mile drive is spectacular along Logan Canyon National Scenic Byway. In addition, four reservoirs are located in Cache Valley: Hyrum Dam is popular for waterskiing, fishing and boating; Porcupine Reservoir is a great getaway and fishing spot. Water skiers also enjoy Newton Reservoir. Tony Grove is a glacial lake 7 miles off Logan Canyon National Scenic Byway and loved for spectacular wildflowers, hiking, fishing and canoeing. Tony Grove Lake—This glacial lake greets visitors with an explosion of summer wildflowers and lush green plants. Tony Grove was formed by powerful and slow-moving glaciers, as evidenced by the huge boulders deposited around the lake. Long-legged moose can often be spotted. Small parking fee for day use. Stay overnight in one of 34 campsites. Fully accessible boardwalk and picnic areas near the water. The turn-off to the lake is 19.6 miles up Logan Canyon off U.S. Hwy. 89. A 7-mile road climbs to 8,050 feet. Ranger District (435) 755-3620.

LOGAN CANYON NATIONAL SCENIC BYWAY

This canyon is one of the country's most beautiful National Scenic Byways with mile-high vertical limestone cliffs, dense forest, the winding Logan River and mountain wildlife. The drive ends at the turquoise waters of Bear Lake. The Byway is lined with camping, picnicking and fishing areas in the Uinta-Wasatch-Cache National Forest. A 7-mile drive off the highway leads to Tony Grove Lake, which is dotted with wildflowers June-August. Logan Canyon is a popular winter paradise with more than 300 miles of groomed snowmobile trails and Beaver Mountain Ski Resort. Logan Ranger District (435) 755-3620

ROCK CLIMBING

Many climbers make a pilgrimage to Logan Canyon for the abundant vertical and overhanging limestone and quartzite faces. Cliffs mostly face north and south, so climbers can choose sun or shade. Mild weather, low humidity and little rain offer excellent climbing. More than 275 routes have been developed and approximately 230 are bolt-protected sport climbs. Remaining routes require placing natural protection. Most are in the 5.10-5.12 range. Be respectful of restrictions that protect five sensitive plant species found only in Logan Canyon. Logan Ranger District, (435) 755-3620.

SKIING, SNOWBOARDING, SNOWSHOEING AND TUBING

Nothing beats cross-country skiing and snowshoeing on a crisp winter day. Beginner areas are located in Sink Hollow, at the entrance of Beaver Mountain Ski Resort and at Sunrise Campground on U.S. Hwy. 89, which overlooks Bear Lake and is near the Logan Canyon summit. A groomed track in Green Canyon (North Logan) offers excellent cross-country skiing just minutes from downtown Logan. Logan Ranger District, (435) 755-3620

Beaver Mountain Ski Resort

Utah is world famous for our skiing and Beaver Mountain boasts four lifts and perfect powder. There's a super chill vibe and it feels like everyone there is your friend. Longest running family-owned resort in the country. Lodging is available at nearby Beaver Creek Lodge. 27 miles east of Logan on U.S. Hwy. 89, Logan Canyon, December to mid-April, daily; closed Christmas Day. (435) 753-0921 skithebeav.com

Cherry Peak Ski Resort

Utah's newest ski resort has a 1,300-foot vertical drop over some of the best fluff the Wasatch Range has to offer. Three triple chair lifts and a tubing hill with a 500-foot conveyor lift so you don't have to hike to the top. Rent tubes there. The resort is in Cherry Canyon, east of Richmond. 3200 East 11000 North, Richmond, (435) 200-5050. skicpr.com

SNOWMOBILING

Northern Utah is one of America's favorite snowmobile playgrounds. Experience more than 300 miles of groomed trails through spectacular scenery with terrain that's as challenging or easy as you want it to be. The Bridgerland snowmobile complex in the Uinta-Wasatch-Cache National Forest includes Logan Canyon, Monte Cristo and Hardware Ranch. Some trails extend into Idaho's adjacent Caribou National Forest.

The season begins in December and often extends into late April. The average annual snowfall in Logan Canyon is 400+ inches.

Utah Festival Opera & Musical Theatre

Utah's Heart of the Arts

LOGAN'S HISTORIC DOWNTOWN THEATRE DISTRICT

Caine Lyric Theatre, 28 West Center, (435) 797-8022, lyricrep.usu.edu. This historic theater was built in 1913 by the Thatchers, a prominent family who loved plays and operas. It is home to the Old Lyric Rep, which performs a musical, drama, mystery and comedy in true repertory each summer. The Caine Lyric offers a splendid and charming view of America's theater past.

Ellen Eccles Theatre, Cache Valley Center for the Arts, 43 South Main, (435) 752-0026, cachearts.org. The magnificent Ellen Eccles Theatre opened in 1923 as the Capitol Theatre. It eventually fell into disrepair, but after a loving restoration this ornate Cache Valley jewel reopened in 1993 as the Ellen Eccles Theatre. The Theatre seats 1,100 and has become the community's center of artistic activity. Enjoy premiere artists, nationally and internationally touring productions and unique performances year-round. Ellen Eccles Theatre is also home to Utah Festival Opera and Musical Theatre each summer and many local arts organizations present high-quality performances throughout the year.

The Utah Theatre, 18 West Center, theutahtheatre.org. Built in 1924, Utah Theatre is a spectacular blast from the Art Deco past. Classic movies, silent movies with live organ accompaniment on a Mighty Wurlitzer theater organ and performances and concerts all grace the stage.

Old Lyric Rep, lyricrep.com. This is one of the only true remaining repertory companies in the nation where the same lead performers star in a rotating schedule featuring a musical, mystery, drama and comedy. These professional actors perform in the 1913 Caine Lyric Theatre, which offers a splendid and charming view of America's theater past.

Russell/Wanlass Performance Hall

Utah State University, (435) 797-8022, cca.usu.edu. This world-class performance hall has exceptionally high quality acoustical design. Its intimate scale is ideal for chamber music, vocal and instrumental concerts, recitals and readings.

Utah Festival Opera & Musical Theatre

59 South 100 West, (435) 750-0300 ext. 3 or (800) 262-0074, utahfestival.org. Each summer Logan rolls out the red carpet for Utah Festival Opera and Musical Theatre's talented musicians and performers. They come from the nation's most prestigious venues such as the Metropolitan Opera and Broadway to perform full-scale productions in Logan's Ellen Eccles Theatre. The company, under the direction of Michael Ballam, presents grand opera and Broadway musicals in repertory with full orchestra (having a full orchestra is a HUGE deal), along with more than 100 concerts, lectures, classes, and more the end of June through the first week in August. The scenery and costumes are spectacular and the performances are brilliant.

Why Sound, 30 Federal Ave., This intimate venue holds 49 people and hosts a wide variety of local, regional and national acts several times a week.

BEAR RIVER HERITAGE AREA

bearriverheritage.com. The Bear River Heritage Area straddles the Idaho-Utah border and showcases an array of beautiful landscapes including rolling farmland, Logan Canyon National Scenic Byway, natural hot springs and beautiful Bear Lake. This region is the ancestral home of the Northwest Band of the Shoshone, mountain men roamed and traded furs here and Mormon pioneers settled the area in the 1860s. Step back in time at the American West Heritage Center or at the National Oregon/California Trail Center. More info at the Visitors Bureau.

CACHE VALLEY HISTORIC DRIVING TOUR

Cache Valley extends more than 50 miles in Utah and Idaho and represents the rugged struggle to settle the American West. This self-guided heritage driving tour winds through 28 Cache Valley cities and towns. It's a great way to learn about our rich history and settlement. Brochure available at the Visitors Bureau or explorelogan.com.

FAMILY HISTORY CENTER

Logan Tabernacle, 50 North Main, (435) 755-5594. Discover your family ancestry at this satellite branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints' international genealogy library, the largest genealogical library in the world. Expert volunteers will help you with your research free of charge and you might just find a long-lost relative.

HISTORIC DOWNTOWN LOGAN

Many beautiful and impressive turn-of-the-century homes, churches and store buildings are located in downtown Logan. Our newly improved Center Street block features a welcome archway and wide sidewalks with tables, chairs and benches designed for you to relax and dine on delicacies from surrounding cafes. Charming Americana at its finest. Other highlights include early Mormon pioneer architecture showcased in the Logan Tabernacle, the 1914 Bluebird Café and the restored 1883 Cache County Courthouse, home of the Cache Valley Visitors Bureau. Meander west down Center Street to view elegant nineteenth-century mansions. 45-minute self-guided walking tour and historic homes brochures available at the Visitors Bureau or explorelogan.com.

LOGAN TABERNACLE

50 North Main. The Tabernacle was completed in 1891 and is a striking example of an early Mormon pioneer public meetinghouse. A beautiful pipe organ was installed in 1908 and the building is used for Church conferences, community concerts and other presentations. An extensive genealogy library is located in the basement of the building where volunteers are happy to help you research your ancestors free of charge. Tabernacle tours are available Mondays through Saturdays throughout the summer. Free Noon Music at the Tabernacle concerts Mon.-Fri., Memorial Day through early August.

LOGAN TEMPLE

175 North 300 East, (435) 752-3611. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Temple is an easily visible icon of the Cache Valley landscape. The edifice was built from 1877-1884 by the donated labor and materials of early pioneers. The modified Gothic building rests on a terrace of the ancient Lake Bonneville and the exterior was built out of limestone and sandstone quarried locally. The beautifully manicured grounds are open to the public, but access to the Temple is reserved for Church members only.
